Martika Ramirez Escobar's infectiously imaginative debut feature, Leonor Will Never Die, is a vibrant love letter to the golden age of Philippine cinema. The film follows Leonor, a once highly regarded filmmaker of Filipino action films who now struggles to pay the bills in her old age. While revisiting her long-abandoned script, a falling television knocks her comatose. Awakening inside her own unfinished screenplay, Leonor suddenly becomes the hero of her ultimate imaginary adventure, blurring the lines between fiction and reality. Seamlessly blending pulpy action homages, playful comedy, nostalgic soundtracks, and touching family drama, Escobar takes audiences on an unpredictable, meta-cinematic journey that celebrates classic cinema, its music, and the unsung crew working behind the scenes. Through a deeply empathetic performance by Sheila Francisco and Escobar's self-reflexive formal experimentation, this playful cinematic gem won the Special Jury Award for Innovative Spirit at the Sundance Film Festival. Join us for a joyous celebration of storytelling that will leave you smiling alongside its unforgettable heroine.

Led by Brunei Darussalam's only National Geographic Explorer Joshua Belayan, the film explores the making, meaning, and legacy of Brunei's traditional palm sugar Gula Anau. The documentary journeys across locations in Brunei Darussalam and Limbang 林夢 (Sarawak 砂拉越, Malaysia) to document not only the craft of tapping Nipah palm sap and producing Gula Anau, but also the people, culture and ecosystems anchored in the mangrove landscapes. Through this cross-border Borneo perspective, the film illuminates how food, land and livelihoods interplay; and how a single ingredient carries deep heritage while facing ecological and economic pressures.

Structured like a concept album, Turn Left Turn Right follows Kanitha, a free-spirited young woman drifting through menial jobs in Phnom Penh. While her mother pressures her to settle into a traditional family life, Kanitha harbours quiet dreams of music and dance. Her deep devotion to her ailing father comes to light when she takes him on a nostalgic road trip to relive a cherished childhood memory. Director Seok tells this simple, moving story unhurriedly, employing a meditative rhythm and hypnotic visuals that border on the dreamlike. Here, sound and music do not merely accompany the narrative; instead, as Kanitha retreats into her own little world, the auditory and visual landscapes merge to transport the audience into a unique sensory space. This lyrical form of storytelling operates at a dreamlike remove, defined by beautifully textured songs and boundless, inventive instrumentation. Blending music, dance, and fantasy, this striking cinematic experiment invites audiences to wander through Phnom Penh alongside Kanitha. Immerse yourself in this captivating 'concept album' on screen—a testament to the fresh, imaginative voices shaping contemporary Asian cinema.

《向左走向右走》的結構宛如一張概念專輯，講述特立獨行的年輕女子 Kanitha 在金邊打零工度日的流浪生活。母親催促她安頓下來、走入傳統家庭，她在這樣的壓力下心中卻始終懷抱着關於音樂與舞蹈的夢想。Kanitha 對於身患重病的父親極具孝心，甚至陪伴他踏上一場公路旅行，以重溫昔日的童年回憶。導演石德鉉以從容不迫的步伐與沉思般的節奏，娓娓道出這個樸實動人的故事，鏡頭畫面如夢似幻，極具催眠魔力。在片中，聲音與音樂不僅是輔助敘事的手段；當 Kanitha 沉浸在自己的小小世界時，聲音、配樂與影像交織融和，將觀眾帶入一個獨特的感官空間。這種如夢境般的抽離敘事風格，伴隨著質感細膩的歌詞與想像力激盪的編曲，展現出極致的詩意。這部融合音樂、舞蹈與夢境片段的作品是不容錯過電影實驗。讓我們跟着 Kanitha 一同遊歷金邊，在這張光影交織的「概念專輯」中，見證當代亞洲電影最不拘一格、最富想像力的全新聲音。

Directed by Usmar Ismail, widely revered as one of the founding fathers of Indonesian cinema, After the Curfew is set during a unique and volatile chapter in the nation's history. The film follows an idealistic wartime veteran who finds it painfully difficult to reintegrate into a rapidly shifting society in the immediate aftermath of the War of Independence. Confronting the deep-seated conflicts of a transitional era head-on, Ismail created what is now considered a towering artistic milestone. The film offers a poignant, passionate exploration of the psychological and political complexities surrounding the early days of post-colonial Indonesia. It also stands as an invaluable historical capsule for the country's rich musical heritage; through its expressive auditory presentation, the film candidly conjures the sharp, beautiful, nostalgic, and at times traumatic collective emotions of its era. As an all-time classic of world cinema, After the Curfew holds the proud distinction of being the first Indonesian film to be internationally restored, after which it was screened at the Cannes Film Festival in 2012. Do not miss this rare opportunity to witness a monumental masterpiece of Asian cinema history. Restored in 2012 by the National Museum of Singapore and Cineteca di Bologna / L'Immagine Ritrovata laboratory, in association with The Film Foundation's World Cinema Project, Konfiden Foundation, Kineforum of the Jakarta Arts Council, and the family of Usmar Ismail Estate. Restoration funded by Doha Film Institute.

由被譽為「印尼電影之父」的厄斯馬伊士美執導的《戒嚴夜》(1954)，聚焦印尼歷史上一個獨特而動盪的轉折點。影片講述了一位滿懷理想的退伍老兵，在獨立戰爭結束後，發現自己難以融入面貌已大為變化的印尼社會，為此感到迷惘和掙扎。伊士美藉此作直面國家轉型期的矛盾與陣痛，為印尼電影史樹立了一座藝術豐碑。這部作品不僅深刻探索了印尼在後殖民時代初期的局勢，以影像呈現了當時複雜的政治環境和心理，同時也是研究印尼豐富音樂歷史的珍貴紀錄。透過富於感情的聲音與音樂，影片坦率地傳達出那個時代激烈、美善、傷感懷舊，甚至時而帶着集體創傷的情緒。作為世界電影史上公認的殿堂級經典，《戒嚴夜》是歷來首部獲得多個國際電影協會聯合修復的印尼電影，並於2012年於康城影展放映。切勿錯過親臨大銀幕見證這部不朽傑作的機會，一同細味這部亞洲電影史上舉足輕重的里程碑作品。
